

OPELOUSAS POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESS RELEASE

From: The Opelousas Police Dept. (Chief Perry Gallow)

The Opelousas Police Department has taken into custody 4 adults and one juvenile following an investigation into a burglary of an Opelousas attorney's office. According to Opelousas Police Department Public Information Officer, Darren Zachary, the department began its investigation on the fact that several stolen checks from the attorney's office were surfacing around the city of Opelousas. Investigators received information that the individual writing the checks was an employee of a local cleaning service responsible for cleaning the attorney's office. The Opelousas Police Department arrested Trenessa Joseph and Charell Graham on charges ranging from Felony theft, Monetary Instrument Abuse and Criminal Trespassing. Investigators also obtained information that at least four males entered the business while Ms. Joseph and Ms. Graham were inside. This was confirmed when investigators found that they had taken photos of themselves while in the business and placed them on Face book. The Opelousas Police Department arrested two males and a juvenile on Burglary Charges and Computer Tampering. A Fourth suspect is still being sought by police. If anyone has information on the whereabouts of John Davis, 1000 Emma St. Opelousas, Louisiana, you are asked to contact the Opelousas Police Department at 337-948-2500.
